TOP 10 STOCK PICKS FOR 2018

The Edge Financial Daily's picks are based on some of the investment themes that fund managers are exploring in 2018. These themes include the re-emergence of the baby-boom generation where many investors' first priority has been to build up their savings, better corporate operating growth and a re-emergence of global economy recovery, interest rate hikes globally, and a strengthening ringgit. Meanwhile, the e-commerce boom that leads to stronger demand for logistics services and improved consumer sentiment that will boost private consumption could also be the driving factors that drive investors' interests. We did not make a selection based on the 14th general election theme as most research houses have said the market could return to fundamentals after the election.
